

Information Retrieval

Making your enterprise content work for you

Your business has massive amounts of data, but no one in your organization can ever find the information they need. Your data is growing in an unregulated manner outgrowing your storage and management capabilities.

What is Information Retrieval?

Wouldn't it be great if you had a well-governed system where everything was in its place and easy to find making it easy to collaborate without any liability issues? Our cutting-edge analysis tools can help you quickly take inventory of your content no matter where it resides, no matter what its format.

The Value

- Increased productivity and revenue
- Regulatory compliance
- Reduced liability
- Manageability

The Proof

- Uncover the unaccounted 80 percent of relevant data
- Cut liability by 25 percent
- Provide actionable business insights in minutes

The Outcomes

- Content becomes an asset rather than a liability
- Growth is managed and governed but not hindered
- Self-service capabilities

What our clients say

"Capax was able to replace an obsolete search platform with a much faster and feature-rich platform. They followed that up with a very successful design and implementation of a high profile internal Enterprise Search portal that has enabled our business to increase collaboration and reduce [system] redundancy."
